

Maximum cord and chain lengths where installation height not known

Note:

Where the fitting height is not known these are the maximum cord and chain lengths permissible. However, a professional installer must always install accumulation devices and tension devices a minimum of 1.5m from the floor. So if a consumer measures but requests a professional to install this will probably involve the adjustment of cords and chains on site.

Source: BS EN 13120:2009+A1:2014

